

Workshop, 30th November 2013 in the ALSO:

Europe and social resistance – Perspectives of resistance there, where economic growth and precarization go hand in hand

Schedule

9:30	Common breakfast in the ALSO-Centre
11:00	1st round Reports on the current state of our political clashes <ul style="list-style-type: none">• London• Berlin• Romania• Oldenburg
12:30	Coffee break
12:45	2nd round 1. How are we organized? <ul style="list-style-type: none">– What do we need, what do we use for the clashes referred to in the first round?– On what (material/individual) basis, we develop our activities?– How do we decide? How do we instruct delegates? How do we represent us to third parties? 2. What prospects, which perspectives do we see for our initiatives and networks? 3. How do we intervene? 4. What allies do we have?
13:45	Lunch
14:45	3rd round 1. What analysis, what political review and evaluation do we have to the economic and social development in our country and in Europe? 2. How do we locate our practice in this assessment? 3. What claims, which demands are we making? (short- or medium-term) What are the objectives that we have achieved? What are the goals from which we are perhaps further away than ever? 4. What objectives, what targets we make us in the medium and long term?
16.15	Coffee break
16:45	4th round 1. Where do we see similarities or differences between our groups and networks? 2. Can we bring common activities on the way? 3. Should we consider (now or later) the 'appeal for an egalitarian Europe' as a basis for our discussions of perspective? 4. Possible appointments
18:30	Dinner and open end...

The event is held in cooperation with the ROSA-LUXEMBURG-STIFTUNG Niedersachsen.

Rosa Luxemburg
Stiftung Niedersachsen e.V.

